

Cremated Remains Recovery

HAVE YOU LOST YOUR HOME IN A WILDFIRE?

If the cremated remains (cremains) of your loved ones were inside, help is available. A team of dedicated volunteer archaeologists, along with trained canines, is here to assist in recovering them with care and respect.

This is a free service provided exclusively for wildfire victims.

HOW TO ACCESS THIS SERVICE

Simply scan the QR code below to sign up for this compassionate and professional assistance.

The Alta Heritage Foundation, a recognized 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, provides this service at no cost to you.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

To ensure the recovery process is as effective as possible, please follow these important steps:

- 1. Do not disturb the site: Refrain from sifting through ashes or moving debris. Disturbing the area can make recovery efforts more difficult.
- 2. Protect the area: Limit foot traffic around the site and avoid removing debris until the team arrives.
- 3. Sign up for assistance: Use the QR code below to visit our website and register for this service.

ALTA
HERITAGE
FOUNDATION

ABOUT US

Alta Heritage Foundation is committed to helping individuals and families recover and honor what remains after the devastation of a wildfire. Our archaeologists and specially trained canines work diligently to locate and recover cremains with care, professionalism, and sensitivity to your loss.

This service is entirely free of charge as part of our mission to support wildfire survivors in their time of need.

For more information or to sign up, scan the QR code or visit our website www.altahf.org.

You are not alone during this difficult time—let us help you.